DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species A: An apparatus for preparing water based baby formula comprising a heating mechanism that is electrical in nature.

Species B: An apparatus for preparing water based baby formula comprising a heating mechanism that is facilitated through exothermic chemical reaction.

Species C: An apparatus for preparing water based baby formula a dispensing member having a fixed volume.

Species D: An apparatus for preparing water based baby formula comprising a dispensing member having an adjustable volume.

Species E: An apparatus for preparing water based baby formula comprising a dispensing member pivotally attached to the dispenser housing and rotates horizontally.

Species F: An apparatus for preparing water based baby formula comprising a dispensing member pivotally attached to the dispenser housing and rotates vertically.

Species G: An apparatus for preparing water based baby formula comprising a dispensing member is motor operated.

Species H: An apparatus for preparing water based baby formula comprising a dispensing member which requires the user to facilitate the dispensing.

Art Unit: 3742

Species I: An apparatus for preparing water based baby formula comprising a dispensing mechanism that remains in the dispense position after depositing formula into the bottle.

Species J: An apparatus for preparing water based baby formula comprising a dispensing mechanism that returns to the fill position after depositing formula into the bottle.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
